Sir,

With reference to your vernacular Rubkari No 925-6 dated 30th January 1895, forwarding for report petition from Savitramma wife of Adigalu Singabhatt of the Nigga temple, Koppa Taluk, I have the honor to state that, prior to his resignation, Singa-bhatt held the following services in the temple. not found

(1) Adigalu (Worshipper)

(1) Adiyalu (worshipper

(2) Parasada Panchakshari

(3) Devi Mahatme

(4) Vidya Tantra

(5) Rudrabhisheka, and (6) Santhitana.

2. He again applied to the Deputy Commissioner that he would enter upon his duties as the temple affairs were for a time well managed, but at the same time he made complaints of mismanagements in the affairs and misappropriation of money and other feeding charges in the temple against Viswesvariah (Vahivatdar) Parpathegar of the institution.

3. On receipt of his several petitions in 1893, the then Deputy Commissioner, his instances, proceeded to the spot in person and enquired into the complaints in the presence of the petitioner Singabhatta. He, however, failed to establish the allegations contained in his petition. Upon this his resignation was accepted in April 1893 on the ground that it was not advisable to retain an unwilling man for temple services.

Mr Sparkes,

4. Again, his wife (Savithramma) applied stating that the Temple Service being hereditary, her husband had no authority to resign them to the detriment of his heirs and consequently she prayed her minor Son

(Rambhatta)

(Rambhatta) being registered for those services through a proxy nominated by her. This was rejected on the ground that temple services were non-hereditary.

5. Lastly - the Jasdik Pattis and Establishment lists were revised when the Muzrai Secretary visited this Institution in 1897, and nominations to the sacral services were made in consultation with the Parpathegar and other men interested. Consequently no further action seems desirable in the matter. Further, since the above revision no one has come forward to complain of the settlement then arrived at.

6. Vernacular correspondence ending with Koppa Amildar's No 72 dated 19th May 1897 is herein enclosed.
